[WARNING: External Email]

Counsel,

Following up on the meet and confer from yesterday, we disagree with Verizon and T-Mobile's positions that Headwater's infringement contentions are deficient. And while Headwater does not believe that any further detail is necessary to put defendants on notice of Verizon and T-Mobile's infringement of the Asserted Patents, and in an effort to avoid unnecessary motion practice, Headwater will provide further amendments by noon PT on August 6th.

We also discussed Verizon and T-Mobile's ongoing failure to meet its obligations under Local Patent Rule 3-4 as well as the Discovery Orders entered in the respective cases and which Headwater has addressed in written correspondence and on various meet and confers since discovery opened. We understand that Verizon and T-Mobile continue to refuse to produce documents in accordance with the Local Patent Rules and the Discovery Orders. As discussed, Headwater thus intends to move to compel production of these documents.

Regards,

Jason Wietholter

Counsel,

We are not available to confer on Monday due to a hearing. We request a lead and local conference, and are investigating our availability later this week.

Please propose some additional times this week (after Monday) when Headwater's lead and local counsel are available.

Thanks,
Charlie
